25X1A SOURCE:

A second Anti-Nasir Arabic language broadcasting station, calling itself
"The Voice of Justice," has been heard since 16 September 1956 on a frequency varying from 6225 to 6255 kcs. Since 20 September a parallel transmitter has been heard on approximately 9775 kcs. Reception on both has been poor. The schedule for these transmitters is:

1500-1520 GMT

1530-1550 GMT (Irregularly)

1600-1620 GMT

The material which has been intercepted consists of talks and commentaries, in a more restrained vein than those of the French Anti-Nasir station.
Emphasis is placed on the lack of dignity of Nasir and consequent detriment to Egypt's international standing, the personal ambitions and corruption of Egyptian leaders and their arbitrary and fascist leadership, and opposition to Nasir within and outside Egypt. False claims of armed preparedness, the obsolescence of arms Egyptian (including the ones for the Orbit), lack of wisdom in Suez policy, the willingness of present leaders to be influenced by the Communists, and the imminence of economic collapse are also stressed.
No attacks on America or American policy have been monitored.

Four coded messages have been heard:

September 16, 1535 GMT, "Wait until the dawn breaks."

September 17, 1500 GMT, "Do not move until you hear the birds sing."

September 26, 1500 GMT, "Watch the even numbers at full noon."

September 27, 1500 GMT, "The lighthouse flashes for the third time."

Technical indications suggest that the transmitters are located on Cyprus. During test transmission on 18 September  monitors in Cyprus reported having recognized the voices of two Sharq-Al-Adna announcers when a microphone was inadvertently left live. 25X1A

The Cairo Voice of the Arabs transmitter which normally operates on 7335 kcs was moved on 18 September to 6255 kcs, in what appears to be a deliberate attempt to interfere with the lower frequency channel of the low Anti-Nasir station. The Voice of the Arabs transmitter continues to be used for this purpose.

Further information on this station has been slow in developing due to the extremely difficult monitoring conditions.

As an example of the content the following was broadcast on September 25 at 1500 GMT:

...He attempted to obtain the support of King Ibn Saud and other Arab leaders for his...policy. But their concept on dignity differs completely from that of Abd Al-Nasir...

The press and radio of Teheran have warned him to abandon his imperialist talk. Radio Teheran has bitterly criticized Abd Al-Nasir's foolish policy concerning (freedom?) of passage through the Suez Canal. Abd Al-Nasir boycotts imperialists and wishes to...we are in need of funds. This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

It is not Egypt which will pay the price of such.. there is Abd Al-Nasir's military parade of which he boasted and which was held in Cairo on July twenty in honor of Soviet Foreign Minister Shepilov. Do you recall this parade, O Brethren? We have all seen Abd Al-Nasir's large Russian tanks which developed trouble and had to be towed before the (Eastern?) platform. These tanks have cost Egypt her cotton production for the next two years... but who cares about that. This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

Abd Al-Nasir runs after his Communist-atheist friends and after (Russian?) aid. He yields to Communist...this is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

Abd Al-Nasir boasts of the Egyptian cotton and of the farmers' sweat and urges them to increase the crop. These are the crops which he will exchange for unserviceable arms. This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

Communist Russian is now selling the Egyptian cotton to Western imperialists at prices less than those paid by Communists. This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

The arrogant dictator was scheduled to visit his atheist friends in Moscow in August..his mercenary newsmen stated that it was dictator Abd Al-Nasir himself who cancelled his visit to Moscow...it was Communist Moscow which announced that Abd Al-Nasir does not wish to visit Moscow at a time when...provocations in connection with the Suez Canal...this is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

But O Brethren what happened to our dignity, Egypt's national dignity? This haughty Abd Al-Nasir has dragged Egypt's dignity and her reputation... what can we expect from a self-conceited man...he who permitted himself to be seen on American television like a dancer. What do we expect from a man who instructs Egyptian diplomats in Arab countries to keep him informed of every article in the Arab press which concerns not Egypt but himself. He spends four hours reading and enjoying himself with every word said about him...he is not interested in anything but his own personal ambitions. This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

Those who were reiterating his honeyed words and called him "the hero of evacuation" are now calling him "the postman's son." They will not call him president, dictator, hero, or emperor but "the postman's son." This is Abd Al-Nasir's dignity.

After being filled with conceit Abd Al-Nasir is now digging his own grave. Our loyalty to Egypt. We must liberate Egypt.
